Keep You

Juliette Reilly

You know Iâ€™ve never been one for danger
And you took the ground beneath my feet
Iâ€™ve learned not to put my faith in strangers
Fall in love, it breaks my heart, repeat

Though with every touch you mend me fast,
You kiss away all my bits of broken glass
Too many times have I been used
Iâ€™m afraid of everything but you.

I will go to the ends of the earth
Drag me through the rubble and dirt
We are human wandering lost
But thereâ€™s no river Iâ€™d not cross to keep you.

Itâ€™s funny how you never look right at me
You Avoid my eyes like drops of faith (?)
Used to talk about all we could be
Now the only thing we both share is the blame

Too many times have I been used
Iâ€™m afraid of everything but you

I will go to the ends of the earth
Drag me through the rubble and dirt
We are human wandering lost
But thereâ€™s no river Iâ€™d not cross to keep you

Oh to keep you

Ooohohohaahahh

Oh to keep you

Ooooooooo ooooooh ooooooooh

Ooooh to keep you

I will go to the ends of the earth
Drag me through the rubble and dirt

We are human wandering lost
But thereâ€™s no river Iâ€™d not cross to keep you.
