

Silence

Tara MacLean

Say the words, break my heart
Touch my lips with your fingers and push them apart
Put your hands in my hair and pull me down
Well, you're nothing but a stranger to me now 'Cause I'm long past feeling
And I'm too far gone
Staring at my ceiling
I know silence better than anyone Say my name and look away
Take a breath take a bow and take the train
Say your piece and say goodbye
You will regret that alibi 'Cause I'm long past feeling
And I'm loading my gun
Staring at my ceiling
I know silence better than anyone
