Slippery Slope (Easier)

Teddy Thompson

I've been on this road alone so long
Traveling down this slippery slope alone
No one's ever right where you are
Looking back into your heartI can trace the lines I cross
Back to that initial loss
And nothing's ever been the same
I have never loved againIt's easier, it's easier now
It's easier, should be easier now
And look at me, fully grown
Yeah, look at me, still aloneI've been on this road alone so long
Traveling down this slippery slope alone
No one's ever right where you are
Looking back into your heart
