Promises, promises

Lisa Lois

Did you say you would stay forever?
(Promises, promises)
Did I dream or did you mean forever?
(Promises, promises)Your clothes are bad
And your hair is a mess, look at you
I don't have to stay obsessed but I doTime after time
It's the same old lies you keep saying
Saying, saying, sayingYou love me, there'll never be another
(Promises, promises)
But my, oh my, look what I discovered
(Promises, promises)I saw you somewhere
You should not be, with someone
I looked and it was not me, now come onI'm not so naive
And I want to belief you're not playing
Playing, playing, playingLies, lies, lies, lies
It's so sad to watch you improvise
Heard it all before, don't wanna hear no moreI'm not staying, staying, staying, stayingTell my friends it's the end forever
(Promises, promises)
I'm forgetting you
I swear it's true forever
(Promises, promises)I caught you somewhere
You should not be, with someone
I looked and it was not me, now come onI'm not so naive
And I won't belief you're not playing
Playing, playing, playingPromises, promises
Promises, promises
Promises, promises
