

Stay (Feat. Hayden Calnin)

Tully On Tully

I feel the darkness setting in
And my memory wares thin
I know it happened times before
And Im preparing for a fallIve started breaking ties Ive made
Expecting blankness on this grave
A dozen times Ive felt this breeze
But now I feel it in my sleepHere I go again
Turn away
Waiting for the end
Come back againIve been blaming all but me
Saying everybody makes me bleed
Im fighting heat behind my eyes
With every word that makes me realiseI see the fragile in remorse
But doing nothing for the cause
Going numb to what surrounds
I need a thrill to keep me boundHere I go again
Turn away, turn away
Waiting for the end
Come back again
Here I go again (dont leave, dont turn away)
Turn away, turn away
Waiting for the end (dont leave dont turn again)
Come back againWiping memories of late
Thinking everythings the same
So much more behind my words
I miss myself so much it hurtsFeel the same
Be this way
Feel the sameFeel the same
Be this way
Stay with me
Stay for me
Here I go again (dont leave, dont turn away)
Turn away, turn away
Waiting for the end (dont leave dont turn again)
Come back again
Here I go again (dont leave, dont turn away)
Turn away, turn away
Waiting for the end (dont leave dont turn again)

Come back again, come back again
