Chasing Yesterday

Ben Moody

Everything I love has gone so wrong, self loathing
How many times do I have to tell myself I'm sorry
Could it be that I'm the only one destroying Inside i'm lost and lifeless since you've gone awayCause your memory still haunts me
And I'm always chasing yesterday
I'm empty, so lonely
I'm always chasing yesterdayEverything I hate is taking me to breaking Every breath's just one more chance to feel your absence
Nothing ever burns inside of me, like your poison
All I want is another touch, just one more taste of youCause your memory still haunts me
and I'm always chasing yesterday
I'm empty, so lonely
I'm always chasing yesterday[Nothing burns, inside of me, like your poison]Nothing burns
Inside of me
Like your poisonAll I want
One more touch
One more taste of youYour memory still haunts me
And I'm always chasing yesterday
I'm empty, so lonely
I'm always chasing yesterdayChasing yesterday
Chasing yesterday
