

Psalm 65

Ian White

Praise awaits you God in Zion,
To you our vows will be fulfilled,
O you who hears prayer,
To You all men will come. When we were overwhelmed by sin
you atoned for our transgressions,
When we were overwhelmed by sin
you atoned for our transgressions, Blessed is the man who you choose,
And bring to live within your courts
We are filled with all the good things,
All the good things of your house, of your Holy temple. When we were overwhelmed by sin
you atoned for our transgressions,
When we were overwhelmed by sin
you atoned for our transgressions, You answer us with awesome deeds of righteousness God our Saviour you're the hope of all the ends of earth,
You formed the mountains by your power, Having armed yourself with strength, You stilled the seas in all their roaring and the turmoil of the lands Those living far off fear your wonders, where morning dawns and evening fades and call forth songs of joy, You care for the land and water it, and you have made it rich,
The streams of God are filled with water,
to provide all men with corn,
for so you have ordained.
You drench its furrows, level ridges and soften all the lands with showers and bless the harvest grain, You crown the year with your bounty and your wagons overflow.
Desert grasslands overflowing and the hills are clothed with joy, The flocks on the meadows and the valleys filled with corn, they shout for joy and sing. When we were overwhelmed by sin
you atoned for our transgressions,
When we were overwhelmed by sin
you atoned for our transgressions,
When we were overwhelmed by sin

you atoned for our transgressions,
When we were overwhelmed by sin
you atoned for our transgressions,When we were overwhelmed by sin
you atoned for our transgressions,
When we were overwhelmed by sin
you atoned for our transgressions,
When we were overwhelmed by sin
you atoned for our transgressions,
When we were overwhelmed by sin
you atoned for our transgressions.
