

Shadows

Burning Image

I can't decide for myself
No one gave me courage when I tried
I don't see a reason for my life
Who will know the difference when I die? I don't have to worry, of things I heard today
I don't really have the time
And no one seems to care
Ahhhhh....ahhhhhh
Right.....tonight.....Can you see the shadows in their eyes?
Can you see the trouble in their lives?
Help me find the words I have to say
Either way, they're laughing in my face I don't have to worry, of things I heard today
I don't really have the time
And no one seems to care
Ahhhhh....ahhhhhh
Right.....tonight.....
