Lessdmv - Damned Memories

This poison is hurting like your lies but I'm strong as no one else the rage in me is so real This lights are burning in my eyes my heart got cold, I paid the price this power feels so real

the silent hell got broken but calm won't back to you you'll burn by the fire in my eyes

I'll take the glory and take what's mine I'll conquer you and tear the sky the dark has taken my eyes this restless heart is turning clear and I will never break in tears

you'll burn by the fire in my eyes

I'll tear you, I'll miss you it's true through the darkest days

Don't look back home you burn by the fire in my eyes don't look back home
