

Alive

Hannah Kerr

I know you're hurting, your hearts been broken
Your tears keep falling, and all you see are your mistakes
You've let your past, define your future
But there is a Father, a Savior who redeems

And He says you are worthy, worthy
And who you are is all that He needs

[Chorus]

We are loved more than we realize, by a God
Who sent His only Son to die, on a cross
What a perfect sacrifice
And in His love, in His love you're alive

We all fall short, of His glory
Lost in the darkness, can't seem to find a way
We all are broken, in need of His mercy
It washes over us, His perfect life that makes us clean

And He says we are worthy, worthy
And who we are is all that He needs

We are loved more than we realize, by a God
Who sent His only Son to die, on a cross
What a perfect sacrifice
And in His love, in His love we're alive

We are set free, You make us new
We are set free, we're alive in You

We are loved more than we realize, by a God
Who sent His only Son to die, on a cross
What a perfect sacrifice, and in His love
In His love we're alive
In His love, we're alive
