Do You Know Where Your Man Is

Pam Tillis

Night is fallin' on this honky tonk city
Country music spillin' out on the street
Sure can sound good to a hard workin' man
At the end of a hard workin' weekDid you kiss him when he left this morning
Does he know that he's needed at home
If you don't feel that old thrill
Then somebody else will
There's some mighty good women all aloneIt's 10:00, do you know where your man is
And are you sure that he's doin' you right
Are you still in his heart when he's out of your sight
Do you know where your man is tonight?Sometimes lovers just get too busy
Livin' their lives day by day
A true lovin' heart is so hard to find
And so easy to let slip away
