Pink Balloon

Ben Harper & The Innocent Criminals

She walks around
With a pink balloon
And if you try to take it from her
Your end will come too soonShe dreams about
Her pink balloon
Carrying her higher and higher
Up to the moonShe ties it to her waist
She ties it to her wrist
And if you're lucky she might let it go for you
And make a wishFirst thing she wakes up
Pours herself a cup
Before she's out the door
She stops to blow it up
Sometimes she carries it high
Sometimes she carries it low
People point at her
And say there she goes
