Drink Till We Drop

Inhale Exhale

Man consumed by pleasure
A body ravaged by poison
The love for the dream is gone
His mother laid to rest with his lifeLoud voices in the distance
A life too short to call it fullThis won't be enough for me
And I am hurting all together now
This won't be enough for me
And I am hurting all together nowHis voice still heard so loudly
And in my heart he will stay
Loud voices in the distance
A life too short to call it fullThis won't be enough for me
And I am hurting all together now
This won't be enough for me
And I am hurting all together nowBut God, did this hurt the ones he loved the most?
God, did this hurt the ones he loved the most?This won't be enough for me
And I am hurting all together now
This won't be enough for me
And I am hurting all together nowThis won't be enough
This won't be enough
