Sequence

Stealing Sheep

Would you break if you fall?
Would you fall if you found out that it's not true?
Could you up and leave now?
Would you even know how if you wanted to?Arms pulled down to the ground sinking slow motion roots growing deeper now (roots growing deeper now) Now she's buried in doubt, only her eyes to show her shout to come and help her out (shout to come and help her out)Sequence SequenceAll of our meanings are all wrapped up in circles
Lost in a feeling of memory its hopelessAll of our meanings
are all wrapped up in circles
Lost in a feeling of memory
its hopelessToo much of a good thing
I can see the patterns forming
Too much of a good thingToo much of a good thing
I can see the patterns forming
Too much of a good thingEven though, now you know, that you don't wanna go
You're part of a sequence
Never leave, never lie, and never ever ever hide You're part of sequenceEven though, now you know, that you don't wanna go
You're part of a sequence
Never leave, never lie, and never ever ever hide
You're part of sequence
