

Secondhand Dreaming

Ruth

Up again watching late night TV
When I should be asleep
Gotta work in the morning Wish I was there next to Letterman's chair
Or waiting backstage
Ready to play Cause I'm burning every single dream
That's ever crossed my heart
And I'm ready to start Secondhand dreaming
I swear I'm barely breathing
I wanna know is this for real? Cause I'm secondhand dreaming
I swear I'm barely breathing
And I wanna know is this for real? And I wanna be what You want
I wanna do what You want
Wanna be only Yours Cause I give You all that I am
Give You all that I was
Give You all that I'm supposed to be Some thing's gonna have to give in
I can't keep on living
On V Street with the faces that I see And I'm burning every single dream
That's ever crossed my heart
And I'm ready to start Secondhand dreaming
I swear I'm barely breathing
I wanna know is this for real? Cause I'm secondhand dreaming
I swear I'm barely breathing
I wanna know is this for real? Secondhand dreaming
I swear I'm barely breathing
I wanna know is this for real? Cause I'm secondhand dreaming
I swear I'm barely breathing
I wanna know is this for real?
