

Enough

Tricia

Wish I didn't always compare myself
Wanting what You gave to somebody else
With that I felt a little more content
Just being me, just being me
I wish I wasn't stuck on what's going wrong
Wish I'd just enjoy this ride I'm on Remember how good You've always been Cause I believe, I believe
It's enough that You know what I'm needing It's enough to just go where You're leading
Keep my feet on the path
And my empty hands always reaching up
It's enough to just breathe in the moment
And wherever I am I can know this
If I have nothing else
I will always have Your love, Your love
And that's enough, that's enough
Oh that's enough
Gonna be days when I'm falling short
Missing every dream that I'm reaching for
When nothing in life is going like
I wish it would, I wish it would
But I know even when it falls apart
You are still God and You hold my heart
This is the valley But You're taking me
To somewhere good, to somewhere good
To life my eyes and to calm my soul
To grow my faith and give me hope
Jesus You're enough, You're enough
Jesus You're enough
That's enough, oh that's enough

Lyrics Submitted by Anurag Rai

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>