

It's Over

Fight Or Flight

This beating me inside, your faults became a cancer
And even though I tried to hide the pain.
You're pure evil inside, it's so hard to make you happy,
You make it look easy to walk away
You're a waste of time and space

And now you're struggling with the thought of me leaving,
Never thought you'd see the day you were wrong, and now I'm gone
And now the weight of the world is no longer on me
You always thought I would stay
You were wrong and now I'm gone
It's over, it's over

I'm starting a new life, and I won't stay another day
We've wasted enough time and now I'm done
I'm seeing from your lines
I'm not blind to all you have made
A terrible inside, I'll find a way
You're a waste of time and space.

And now you're struggling with the thought of me leaving
Never thought you'd see the day you were wrong and now I'm gone
And now the weight of the world is no longer on me
You always thought I would stay
You were wrong and now I'm gone
It's over, it's over

Determined to live life, was blind to all you gave me

And now you're struggling with the thought of me leaving
Never thought you'd see the day you were wrong, and now I'm gone
And now the weight of the world is no longer on me, you always thought I would stay
You were wrong and now I'm gone
It's over, it's over

Always thought I would stay
You were wrong and now I'm gone
