Failure

Lagwagon

Pick up please
The boys give you validity
They give you what you want
They can never give enough
Only charity until you're sorry Victimized, one thing I can't criticize
Given you struggle
Could you ever be alone?
Seems impossible and still I'm sorry
Saint Freedom,
it's so easy when you give up
No matter what I've done
I could never be the one
It's never effortless to fail
I can rely on this
Could you ever rely on me
Jealousy
The boys give you validity
No matter what you've done
I could never be the one
Just a shareholder of lies
I put you to bed
They will always leave independent of you
You could never deny
I always knew how to fail you
I always knew you
