Synplicity

Zug Izland

Yes my mind is splittin 'cause I hang with a sinner
Hand in hand with the hatchet but its nothin' familiar
Non believers keep walkin' till we finally arrive
Black smoke around the family with the red in our eyes
Cold chills from the death holdin' on to the past
Hold your self on to the table 'cause your life's movin' fast
Devastated by the haven that you need to escape
Right hand on the book flip the page choose your fateRaise the dead on a red moon night
Will they cry well I think they just might Torturing watch a frozen tear
This ain't hell but id rather be there
Spider web makes it hard to move
Death awaits yet I have nothing to prove
Twisted soul in my mental game
Murder comes it goes with no kind of blame[Chorus]
If I would tread as the dark becomes light
Trapped motionless 'cause the chords on to tight
What will ever become of this book that I hold
Look at the fire burn it is such simplicityRain drops fall the dark night sky
Bodies crawl from garbage cans and alleyways alive
You can find me there in the shadows without a doubt
Time for my people and me to come about
Children of the river in the midst of the strip
Down trodden and forgotten but its still all good
Now what you throw away is ours to keep
You know the children need a pillow when they go to fuckin sleepYour disease quite infectious
Want to know your the object of my lust
As he lay come on and stick out your tongue
Reaching out to each and every single one
Riled up fuck come follow me
Pyramids the lobotomy is necessary
Crystal ball its just simplicity
Kings and queens to show us where we should be[Chorus]I remember when I was down the block
My leg got popped and I got dubbed in the knee spot
Everybody out to get me everywhere I go
Is it a sin to get your dick sucked by a ho
What about the fact that I don't fake to tote guns
Stay outta my way and don't make me have to use one can't help the feeling in my head

Overload pull the trigger and unload[Chorus]
