

You Don't Know Where Your Interest Lies

Simon & Garfunkel

You don't know that you love me
You don't know but I know that you do
You may think you're above me, yeah
What you think isn't always true Don't try to debate me,
You should know that I'm womanly wise
Still you try to manipulate me
You don't know where your interest lies No, you don't know where your interest lies
You don't begin to comprehend You're just a game I like to play
You may think that we're friends all right
But I won't let friendship get in my way,
No, I won't let friendship get in my way, Indications indicate running the same riff will turn you around
Obviously you're going to blow it,
But you don't know it You don't know that you love me
You don't know but I know that you do
You may think that you're above me, yeah
What you think isn't always true Don't try to debate me,
You should know that I'm womanly wise
Still you try to manipulate me
You don't know where your interest lies No, you don't know where your interest
