VooDoo

Giulietta

I cast a spell on you, and you changed like from dawn to noon
And it's feeling like it's got me so confused
And this heart ache of this spell is so brand new
And I can't take it no more I'm over due
Got me wond up in your charm who knew?
And every time it feels like voodoo, I petrified of what will go through
And every night I close my eyes, and see you there under disguise
Voodoo, it's voodoo, voodoo, it's voodoo
I pull myself up and find out that its you
Got me giving up all hope cause your lies are true
Now I'm starting to review I'm such a fool
At my l last resort, I'm subjected to you
And Im caught your lies , Im hypnotized, and Im stabbed and burning deep inside
Got me on this roller coaster ride,
And now there's no where left to hideAnd every time it feels like voodoo, I petrified of what will go through
And every night I close my eyes, and see you there under disguise
Voodoo, it's voodoo, voodoo, it's voodoo
I've embodied this feeling, Im under your spell
And it feels like I was brought straight down to hell, hell
And this is something i'll never, ever re tell
And from here on end I know I will rebel
And Im caught your lies , Im hypnotized, and Im stabbed and burning deep inside
Got me on this roller coaster ride,
And now there's no where left to hideAnd every time it feels like voodoo, I petrified of what will go through
And every night I close my eyes, and see you there under disguise
Voodoo, it's voodoo, voodoo, it's voodoo
