

Summertime

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Finally summer's come
Finally summer's come
I sit here all alone and waitFeel like it's been days
I watch time slip away
And wonder how much longer I can take thisSame cycle starts again
I think of summer's when
We played outside 'til ten but nowMy youth comes to a halt
The girls and fun are gone
And now I'm just a lump of sick impatienceBut I won't give up
I'll settle this score
And drink 'til there's nothing left of meOf my friends, of this band
Of this weary, dreary
Piss poor consolationI won't give up
(I won't give up)
I'll settle this score
(Want nothing more)
Of this weary, dreary
Piss poor consolation
