

Time

A Brand

Time
you do
need is a stray
needing it almost every day
Are you a friend,
are you my keeper
are you a relic
are you a cheater
Can I denial
Can I believe you Can I deceive you
your a deceiver
your a deceiver

Time
when you rush in from day one from the time that we're done we just run try to catch you with the present without a change of any progress of any movement any improvement despite the effort Your late your late your late your late

Timeeee!
God damn no good sun of a gun x3
Timeee!

1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,10,11,12, 13,14,15,16,17,18,19,20,21
22,23,24,25,26,27,28,29,30

The speed of light,
the speed of sound
without any doubt
beats mankind
your going faster
you think you do you think you will no you won't

no you don't your so slow
your so slow
your so God damn slow!

Timeeee!
God damn no good sun of a gun x3

my child my child
your growing old
my girl my girl
before you now it
you blossom you faith x3
and you're always behind

Timeeee!
God damn no good sun of a gun x3
