Drowned

Alcoa

Turn me into, another corner, see I'm sideways, I'm unopened
I let it before I lose myself, I'm empty and inspired alone
And I swear, I can say to you and I swear, I can say to you
So I write it down, and slip away from faith
Frustrated and anxious to grow
Addressed in clothes that never fit my mind
Letters said but never closed last time
And I can say to you and I swear, I can say to you
You tell me, oh, when did we start to drown
You see Ill hold you there, oh, when did we start to drown
Cant you see its time we made it home
Oh, when did we start to drown?
(Drown)
When did we start to, when did we start to drown
So I see you turn it into your lines my way
You see I'm angry, and Ill set you straight
Let it before I lose control, you find out and Ill fight it alone
And I swear, I can say to you and I swear, I can say to you
Yes, I swear, I can say to you
Somebody tell me, oh, when did we start to drown
You think Ill hold you there, oh, when did we start to drown
Can you see its time we made it home
Oh, when did we start to drown?
Always on my mind, time for you temper
Always on my mind, sent to my mind I know
Always on my mind, Ill hold your thoughts I swear, always
So you turn me, so you turn it, turn me into another corner
And you put me in this, this other corner, turn it into another corner
You'll tell me when did we start to drown
You see Ill hold you there, oh, when did we start to drown?
Cant you see its time we made it home
Oh, when did we start to, drown [unverified]

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/