

Hollywood Babylon

Killing Joke

If I expose my jealousy to you
Would you love me as I am?
If I expose my weakness to you
Would you love me as I am?
Just another piece missing Just another piece missing in the jigsaw puzzle
If I told you of the way I amuse myself
Would you love me as I am?
If I expose the thoughts of sexual violence
Would you love me as I am? Just another piece missing
Just another piece missing
Just another piece missing Just another piece missing in the jigsaw puzzle
Just another piece missing
Just another piece missing Just another piece missing in the jigsaw puzzle
If I expose my thoughts of sexual fantasy
Would you love me as I am?
If I told you all about the things I've done
Do you love me as I am? Just another piece missing
Just another piece missing in the jigsaw puzzle
