Put My Hand In the Fire

Immolation

I know this is my chosen pathTo believe in no one but meI know this is my chosen pathYou've always kept the promiseYou've always kept the faithWell I never will and never had to
I've sinned and I will again
I've sinned and sinnedAccording to your higher standards
For this I'll go to hellYou hypocrite, you never didYour truths are lies
Your lies are so patheticI'll never give up my soul for youI've sinned and sinnedTo you I am darkness
I've sinned and I will againTo you I have no soul
The smoke from the flamesWill rise up foreverPut my hand in the fire
Put my head in the flamesI can believeI know it hurtsI know its real
My skin is meltingMy skin is meltingAnd it feels so right
To you I am darkness
To you I have no soulthe smoke from these flames
Will rise up forever
