This Maniacs' In Love With You

Alice Cooper

I used to be (used to be) so in control
But reality (reality)'s losing its holdNow I don't know where to begin
Just look at the state that I'm in
My mind is in total decay
I'm coming to take you away[Chorus]
There's nothing more that I can do
(This maniac's in love with you)
Your biggest fear has just come true
(This maniac's in love with you)
There's nothing more that I can do
(this maniac's in love with you)
I want to cum inside of you.My heart has been strapped in a straitjacket
The therapy boys say it fits like a glove
I'm crossing the line in my brain
The line between pleasure and pain
It takes all I've got to survive
This madness will eat me alive[Chorus]Now I just don't know where to begin
Just look at the state that I'm in
My mind is in total decay
I'm coming to take you away[Chorus]There's nothing more that you can do,..
Your biggest fear has just come true
