Anthrax

Sun is shinin' off his face again
Another day to reflect, I hoped you understand
Lookin' for the sign that lets me know
That you're fine, that you're fine
You just found your way back home
Feel you within, feel you everywhere
You'll path the sky, will get me everywhere
So take me some place where I will always know
That you're fine, that you're fine
You just found your way back home
Who's to tell me, I have to let it go
I need to say this, I have to let you know
I'll be here waitin' for our souls to meet
I'll be here waitin' for your call to me
Anthony, I know you're home
Right beside me, all alone
Anthony, I have so much to say
In my heart, you will always remain
Never be alone

Maybe I'm blind, maybe I don't wanna see
I distinct this fight won't play for me
Let us just think that I will, I think I know
That you're fine, that you're fine
You just found your way back home
I question my faith, I question everything
I need to know if this is all there is
So take me some place where I will always know
That you're fine, that you're fine
You just found your way back home
Who's to tell me, I have to let it go
I need to say this, I have to let you know
I'll be here waitin' for our souls to meet
I'll be here waitin' for your call to me
Anthony, I know you're home
Right beside me, all alone
Anthony, I have so much to say
In my heart, you will always remain
Anthony, my brother, my friend
I'll be with you once again

Anthony, my heart owns your faith

It will always light your day

I never be alone

I never be alone

I never be alone

I never be alone
