

Time To Believe In

The Deslondes

Time worth having has been long time gone
Time after time, /?/ I'm just strumming along
Time turn to preys and no time for this song
Time to believe in but time to be gone I never thought I'd see it, thought I'd die there alone
Waiting for right /?/ to come along
But love, it don't come easy and it don't walk down that road
So let that /?/ wonderboat, let it take where that little thing go What can you do (What can you do)
What can you do now?
Acting like everything is right up to you now
I bet she /?/
(I bet she /?/) I bet she /?/ now
Well life would try and swim /?/
But it do not know hidden soul, it lived in you
So don't look tall just standing, standing left to right
You might just find yourself stucked with what you've got Time worth having has been long time gone
Time after time, /?/ I'm just strumming along
Time turn to preys and no time for a song
Time to believe in but time to be gone
What can you do (What can you do)
What can you do now?
Acting like everything is right up to you now
I bet she /?/
(I bet she /?/) I bet she /?/ now Another day
