

Crying Shame

Black Oak Arkansas

Too late
Yeah baby it's too late
And time has made the spell obey
And now it's time to desecrate
 But we had a dream
 And it was meant to be
 And we were kissing gods
 Against all the odds
 Now it's a crying shame
 And it's a crying shame
You don't know who to blame
 We'll never be the same
 And it's a crying shame
 Too much

And we demolished too much
And yeah we really fucked it up
And yeah baby you've lost your touch
 But we had a dream
 And it was meant to be
 And we were kissing gods
 Against all the odds
 Now it's a crying shame
 And it's a crying shame
You don't know who to blame
 We'll never be the same
 And it's a crying shame
 And it's a crying shame
