Shadows Of Doubt

Chely Wright

Lay down your head
On cotton and feathers, so soft
Let go of feelin' alone
Have something that baby you're not
And right now you don't call me friend,
But I'm still here, where I've always been
And even though you don't know it right now,
I'll outlast the shadows of doubt
Yeah, I'm stronger then shadows of doubt
And when you find love again
Yes, baby, I hope that you do

Maybe we won't be in vain and you'll let me be somethin' to you
And right now you don't call me friend,
But I'm still here where I've always been
And even though you don't know it right now,
I'll outlast the shadows of doubt
Yeah, I'm stronger then shadows of doubt
Lay down your head
On cotton and feathers, so soft
Let go of feelin' alone
Have something that baby you're not...
