Cold Tears

AM & Shawn Lee

this aint the night but I keep telling you this don't feel right everything feels so tight we split upnow you treat me like muck baby, you aint got no luck with me, I gave you everything we were parading like kings and queensdarling I told you not to be afraid I just wanted to show you I cared I look at all those images and pictures we took together you said we would be together foreverbut I wish I weren't too clever because you will never n-e-v-er, n-e-v-er forgive me (x2)
