

Kingdom Come

Heavenly

Now its time to get my life back
Stolen years ago
I have ridden to see you die
Are you insane to cross my way
Me, the king of doom
Ive never seen someone talk to me like youBravely, still alive
Theres a place for you
Hell is on your way
Ready to survive
Cause I will fight again
And AgainDeadly was the road Ive followed
To find your hideout
I have sworn to kill you through the night
I am the evil
Ive crossed all the ages
Beating the laughable time
Thats what they say
Between you and IBravely, still alive
Theres a place for you
Hell is on your way
Ready to survive
Cause I will fight again
And againTime has come to bring power to my soul
All my wasted days
Dive into my dreams
We finally try to pay
To rise from the ashesTime has come to bring power to my soul
And the sun will shine
Its rays warm up my skin
To see the light of day
Carry on to blow him away
Kingdom ComeIm your master
Im gonna kill you
Haha haha
You must die
You must die
You must die!
Dont reject, you belong to meBattle takes a while
Our powers light up the sky

So close to steal the crown
Woah, woah! Gods are on my side
To reach the glory ride
So I shall overcome
Woah, woah! Ah! Ah! Ah! Ah! Ah! Time has come to bring power to my soul
All my wasted days
To rise from the ashes Time has come to bring power to my soul
And the sun will shine
For life and beyond the grave
Kingdom come, final destiny
