Cloak and Dagger

Daedelus

You may never get to wander along the corridors of power where the files tell your story beneath the bell that keeps it's secret by the hour we wanna know what's it's got to say.

we know what you're doing we know what you've got we know how you got it but we don't talk a lot and everything's so

cloak and dagger
our future in their hands
promises of promised lands
cloak and dagger
our world behind closed doors and what they have is mine and yours

we give you bits and pieces to keep you happy and fat we know the things that matter but we don't talk about that mums the word

cloak and dagger
our future in their hands
promises of promised lands
cloak and dagger
our world behind closed doors
and what they have is mine and yours

when there's still conflict and confusion after everything they've tried why can't they just let go of their secrets cos there's no suspicion when there's nothing left to hide there's nothing left to hide we know that things that matter but we're not telling you cos you might try to stop us and that would never do

and everything's so
cloak and dagger
our future in their hands
promises of promised lands
cloak and dagger
our world behind closed doors

and what they have is mine and yours

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by KERSHAW, NIK Lyrics Â© Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/