

Mudbath

Kashmir

now I feel it again it's the old silent friend having a feast in my lungsevery now every then there's a tickle within and it scares me to deathyou have heard it all before you don't want to hear no more 'cause you know which way it goeson my cold bathroom floor I lay down 'till I'm sore pouring mud on my skin'cause I feel it again it's the old cytooid friend may he choke in the mudyou have heard it all before..
