For You

Killswitch Engage

The finest parts of me
Are only shades of you
To put aside the ties that bind
Is the goal of man
I give my word
To stand the test of time
No more wasted days
The past must perish
The line is drawn
I pledge my devotion
There is no turning back
This heart is yours
I sacrifice for you
For you, for you
This is immortal
The finest parts of me
Are only shades of you
With each passing day
This darkness is endless
No more wasted time
We are immortal

The line is drawn
I pledge my devotion
There is no turning back
This heart is yours
I sacrifice for you
For you, for you
This is the everlasting
This is immortal
Your words are my inspiration
Your life, an image of perfection
For all you are, for all you've done
I strive to be in your reflection
The line is drawn
I pledge my devotion
There is no turning back
My heart is yours
I sacrifice for you

For you, for you
This is the everlasting
This is immortal
