The Turning Point

Lacrimosa

Poutaisat pilvet haihtuvat katoen nopesti tuulten mukana kuin tama uni
Jossa en enaa sinua tavoita on liian myohaistaIn a dream I saw the world beyond - no tongues telling lies
The silence was covering everything inside
In a dream I saw myself - fallen down next to me
Couldn't crawl back inside my bodyNo laughter on my face - reality mirrored in the deep signs of life
Too long sacrificed my feelings to the ones
Who take all 'till there's nothing in the endI'm not in my aim - I've gotta love also the other half of me
To reach the Turning point
As only in my dreams I'm my biggest enemyTill I'd found out that I only loved your half in me
So much time I spent - not knowing myself
Too much love I'd given for everyone but nothing for me
My light was burning 'till the endNow you showed me that two full halves make a stronger one
Also out of me and I feel the strength
Returning into me I new-found love againCouldn't have been fighting alone
Thank you for hearing me on time
I bless you for the trust you gave
When I didn't admit being weakI am close to my aim truly hoping
I won't fail
Before I reach The turning point
Where we're no longer the sameDidn't notice me change
Was not living the days without names
Now I'm here with you
To stay beyond
The turning point
Of my dreamsO found my aim - now I can face myself
Again
I thank you for
Loving me
And keeping us on the right way
