Hey!

Elvis Perkins in Dearland

Oh, yes
Oh, yesCome with me, I'll take you anywhere
We'll feel our way to the top of the stairs
And say hey, oh yes today
Shake your hands through the chains above
Let them fight, we'll catch a dove and
Say whatever you sayI don't mind if you dream out loud
Fix your hair, a fallout cloud
Hey, I don't mind whatever you're going through
If it were up to me, I would leave it up to youTrain the searchlights on some other lives
Forget these kids, forget these wives, 'cause
Hey, who could catch us anyway?When the moon buries a sun in the dead sea
It's the cemetery of the century, but
Hey, it was a starry day
When it gets dark on the count of night
Find your way with a butcher knife, but
Hey, just be careful out there, watch who you run into
If it were up to me, I would leave it up to youCome with me, I'll take you anywhere
We'll feel our way to the top of the stairs
And say, oh let's say it's okay
I don't mind if you dreamed out loud
You fixed your hair, a fallout cloud
Hey, I don't mind whatever you're going through
If it were up to me, I would leave it up
If it were up to me, I would leave it up
If it were up to me, I would leave it all up to you
