15 Seconds

Ivy

He knows it's 15 seconds away
Spend another Summer underneath his covers or find out
Hello, this is not where little girls should play
She moves, it's finalHey, is she ever gonna do it?
Is she ever gonna get 'round to it?
Hey, is she ever gonna do it?
Is she ever gonna go through with it?She knows she swore she'd savor it all
Staring at the ceiling there's a bitter feeling upon her
He goes counting cracks that run along the wall
They lay in silenceHey, is she ever gonna do it?
Is she ever gonna get 'round to it?
Hey, is she ever gonna do it?
Is she ever gonna go through with it?Hey, is she ever gonna do it?
Is she ever gonna get 'round to it?
Hey, is she ever gonna do it?
Is she ever gonna go through with it?She tries to move up closer to him
Hoping for a kiss, she reaches for his sweaty, cold hands
He smiles, this is what the fuss was all about
He leaves, it's over
