Love Is a Gamble

Randy Travis

Back when I was still in school I got taught as a rule
That my heart could always fool my head
So I tripped and fell a lot, learning what true love was not Till one evening mama said we ought to talkShe said love is a gamble, it's a chance that you take
You lay your heart down and you bet it won't break
You bet your sweet dreams won't get tattered and tornBut when that happens you must shake off those blues
Just remember you've got nothing to lose
But you've had true love since the day you were born
Since the day you were bornThen she told me all she knew about what makes true love true
And it hasn't much to do with heat
Young hearts race and then grow still, passion cools and always will
But a river just keeps filling up the seaYou see love is a gamble, it's a chance that you take
You lay your heart down and you bet it won't break
You bet your sweet dreams won't get tattered and tornBut when that happens you must dream up some more
When you find it you'll have seen it before
But you've had true love since the day you were bornLove is a gamble, it's a chance that you take
To lay your heart down and you bet it won't break
You bet your sweet dreams won't get tattered and tornBut when that happens you must shake off those blues
And just remember you got nothing to lose
You've had true love since the day you were born
Since the day you were born
