

Will You Wait for the Sun

Celestial Season

[lyrics:Jason Kohnen]the cold water in which I stand portrays the tears I once cried I face a sunset of sweet sins in a dusk of perishing hopesI bear the shroud that once warmed me I bear a torn shroud that now grieves with meI wash my hands with glory that once was with might once shared through my fingers it slips...
...alas...it slips...
