Yesterday's Song

Default

Never got your invitation
A party went on while you waited
All decked out with no place to go
I can't get no satisfaction
A break in your chain reaction
Two tickets to a one man show
Everything you lose now
Had your chance to prove that
No one left to use now
How's it on your own
You live your life at midnight
Dancing on a skylight
Running on a thin line
Now you're all alone
How's life been treating you
You're going to find your way back home
And I'm going to leave the music on
You've got the words all wrong
You're so far away from yesterday
So
You call it new sensation
I call it time wasted

The outside is blinding you
You live your life at midnight
Dancing on a skylight
Running on a thin line
Now you're all alone
You're going to find your way back home
And I'm going to leave the music on
You've got the words all wrong
You're so far away from yesterday
So
Yeah
So far away from yesterday
So
You're going to find your way back home yeah
You're going to find your way back home
And I'm going to leave the music on

You've got the words all wrong
You're going to find your way back home
And I'm going to leave the music on
You've got the words all wrong
You're so far away from yesterday
So far away from yesterday
You're so
