

Welcome to My Life

Empire of the Sun

Welcome to my life
It's running on empty
It's running on nothing
You could be my love
If only you let me, let me i love you
All the things we've tried Darkness to golden summer for winter
If you love me back I'll never grow hungry
I'll never be lonely you started something great
I know i really feeling in my veins never gonna be the one you hate cause i know how to stay away from pain i could offer life throughout the sense
I can see this diamond in my life and she's walking up, little closer and makin everythin so emotional
I feel the pleasure and pain for you Welcome to my life
I know that I want you It's all that I can do
You complete my life
The moment I met you
The love I confess to All those stars that shine There's so many out there right on the distant We are too unfair
the purer electric Who are against too You started something great
I know i really feeling in my veins
Never go and be the one you hate
'Cause I know how to stay away from pain i could offer life throughout the sense
I can see this diamond in my life
and she's walking up, little closer and
makin everythin so emotional
I feel the pleasure and pain for you You started something great
I know i really feeling in my veins
Never go and be the one you hate
'Cause I know how to stay away from pain i could offer life throughout the sense

I can see this diamond in my life
and she's walking up, little closer and
makin everythin so emotional
I feel the pleasure and pain for you
