

Empty (Nathan Leigh Remix)

God Lives Underwater

Why won't you face me it's been such a long time i'm walking a fine line now were walking out why can't i see things like I'm supposed to see things I'm not supposed to be this way not this time around sometimes I feel so empty
so much pain I still ignore everyday I endure sometimes I feel so empty
everyday you want more my expectations were high in the first place were high in the worst way it leaves me so down I give up easily can't speak so freely wont someone release me just this time around
