

No PR Blues (feat. Fin)

Netherfriends

Trying to go far, but I don't pay for PR
I'll never be a star or drive a fancy car
I could do sell out shit, so that I can gain clout
Clout is what all these girls are all about

My mom only cares when I'm on TV
My dad only cares that I make money
I just smoke, drink every day and night
I don't give a fuck if I'm doing it right

I just want love sometimes
I just wanna puff sometimes
Be fucking on them drugs sometimes
Just wanna be the plug, one time

PR firms gotta be the Feds, telling me that if I spend these petty fees (?) money that I feed myself with, weed myself with that I'd probably be with wealth (?)

You make that call
Telling everyone I'm in charge
I get on, I'mma never go blonde
Fish in a pond can't even correspond
End up on a hook man,
That can change your life,
that can change your night,
that can change your view,
You see what the fame'll do Think about my craft as I light this Once I get a mil man, I ain't writing shit
You can tell the world, dawg, I ain't fighting it
My last lines was full of hypotheticals Never been sick, don't need medical Miss another show, I was stuck on some edibles

Windows ain't close
but these offers don't stop
 (?)

I notice these clocks
These hands don't move and a n*gga don't lose, Oh no

Trying to go far, but I don't pay for PR
I'll never be a star or drive a fancy car
I could do sell out shit, so that I can gain clout
Clout is what all these girls are all about
