

El Matador

Rap Beats

Matador sweeps the veil
From the last young day of my life
 Malibu tides inhale
 Santa Ana winds from behind
 Wade out into the water
 No more chances this year
I've busied myself all summer
 My day for swimmin' is here
 Yes, it's time
 Seaside revelations
All those dreams and visions of mine
 Washed up like a vacation
 Lost as I wasted my time
 Lookin' through my dark glasses
I see smiles on the faces of friends
But time keeps pushin' me on now
And I'll ride this wave till the end
 Please don't go away
 Stay awhile, stay awhile
 Please don't go away
 Stay awhile, stay awhile
 Say goodbye to the weekend
And the last of the summertime sun
 Drivin' off the end of a decade
 So many things to be done
September and the trees are restless
 Wind chimes blow in the dark
 Lyin' on the couch defenseless
 With blue clouds court and spark
 Please don't go away
 Stay awhile, stay awhile
 Please don't go away
 Stay awhile, stay awhile
 Please don't go away
 Stay awhile, stay awhile
 Please don't go away
Why don't you stay awhile? Stay awhile
