

Everyone Here Is Wrong

The Casket Lottery

choose bronze and win us all over. for its time for a hero and we all know not one exists. not here. not yet.
we've got our hopes up high, enough to get let down and go for the gold. all along everyone here is strong. possibilities and maybes make for conversation pieces. but hope and will will make us all new reasons so let us down, or choose bronze and save us all from barely hanging on. save us all.
