

Back to You

Bleu Edmondson

There's a comfort in the cross
On the hill above the town
Something steady for the meek
When it all comes crashing down
I've been known to talk to Jesus
But only when I needed to
I've got lots that needs forgiving
It all comes back to you
Out here searching for my shelter
I crossed the river 7 times
Wanna hear your sweet voice calling
Down the valley, through the pines
I need something to believe in
Thirsty for a little truth
I've been running short on faith
My faith runs back to you
There's a quiet in the twilight
That's when I talk to you
Can you hear me
I pray you hear me
Yeah, I hope I'm getting through
No one else could touch me
You had a way of cutting true
I've been bleeding for you darling
My blood runs back to you
My faith runs back to you
It all comes back to you
