James Brown

Cabaret Voltaire

Everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power. Everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power. When it comes, it falls in pieces.

Eating holes and gems unbound.

Birds and hearts and flags and everything. Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power. Money matters. Does mercy matter? Suddenly, as things are clearer,

See the sights are getting nearer. Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power. Money matters. Does mercy matter? Suddenly, as things are clearer,

See the sights are getting nearer. Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power. Money matters. Does mercy matter? Suddenly, as things are clearer,

See the sights are getting nearer. Everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power. I said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power. When it comes, it falls in pieces.

Eating holes and gems unbound.

Birds and hearts and flags and bugs.Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.
