

Summoning the Powers

Virgin Steele

Spirit of the air... remember
Spirit of the earth... hear my prayer
Spirit of the seas... I summon thee
To the one who has no name Veiled is the night, bright are the eyes of the dead
Fire and water... cleanse... purify
Great spirit of power, hear now my commands
Grant every wish of blood... blood! Gods of the dead feel my rage, enter the circle of my sacrifice
Take on the world, free the plagues with the smoke of your word
Dark is the vision that burns in my heart
Kill from within, conjure the seven who stand on the mountains of dawn
I am the flame Spirit of the air... remember
Black gods of the sun... Cry out to me, steal the thrones and the powers of him
Black is the vision of all we despise
Slide on the wind, great is the power that comes in the back of the night
I am the flame Spirit of the air... remember
Black gods of the sun, cry to me
Spirit of the sea, know thy suffering
Black gods of the sun, hear my cry! Gods of the silence, gods of the damned
Offer no mercy, withdraw your hand Gods of the silence, gods of the sand
Shorn of your glory, kill on command Gods of the dead, feel my rage, enter the circle of my sacrifice
Take on the world, she who reigns in the palace of night
Dark is the vision that burns in my heart
Gilde down the stars, feel my hate
Outcasts of heaven we meet in the city below, I am the flame Spirit of the air. remember
Black gods of the sun, cry to me
Spirit of the earth, know thy suffering
Black gods of the sun, hear my cry !!!
